A two-storey semi-detached house constructed by Gough Cooper about 60 years ago and extended more recently. Many of the houses in this area have been enlarged further and had loft conversions, so it may be that similar potential exists for this property, subject to any necessary consents.

As well as being extremely close to the sought-after Aldrynton and Maiden Erlegh schools, the property is also close to Maiden Erlegh Lake and not far from Reading University. There are local shops available at The Parade, with more extensive shopping facilities at the Asda and Marks & Spencer complexes in Lower Earley.

Bus services on the road provide access into Reading town centre, where the main line railway station offers services to Paddington, on the Elizabeth line, and also services to Waterloo which run through the nearby Earley Railway Station.

The M4 motorway can be accessed either at Junction 11, where there is also the A33 south to Basingstoke, as well as Green Park and its new railway station; or at Junction 10 where London then lies approximately 40 miles away and Heathrow Airport approximately 28 miles away.
