Originally constructed by the local authority in the 1950s, set well back from the road and with rear gardens extending to about 110 ft and overall plot of 210 ft in depth. The property has been let over the last few years but is now vacant, needs some updating and offers fantastic potential with recently granted planning consent for a substantial family home (planning consent number 260671).

The location is superb, being in the Loddon Primary and traditional Maiden Erlegh Secondary School catchments, not far from Earley Railway Station, and also with good access into Reading town centre, as well as two junctions of the M4.
